

OVIDIUS UNIVERSITY ANNALS OF CHEMISTRY

GUIDE TO AUTHORS

The journal and editorial policy

The Ovidius University Annals of Chemistry (OUAC), a biannual journal, publishes results of experimental and theoretical studies in all domains of chemistry and applied chemistry, including chemical engineering, pharmacology and environmental sciences. The publication in the OUAC journal is free of any kind of fees.

Only the contributions which are original and report work of quality and significance are accepted for publication in the journal. The acceptance for publication is done on the basis of positive recommendation from the referees. The contributions must not have appeared elsewhere.

Necessary copyright permission should be taken by the authors from the concerned persons for reproducing figures, diagrams, tables, photographs, etc., from other publications in articles published in OUAC; this should be mentioned in the caption [i.e. "Reproduced from Ref. with permission from"]. Copy of the permission from the concerned authority should be submitted along with the manuscript. OUAC does not assume any responsibility for the above.

Submission of the manuscript

The manuscripts should be submitted by e-mail (ouannalschemistry@gmail.com) to editorial coordinator as a word file together with a certificate of originality. The authors must prepare their manuscript as shown in template files.

Organization and layout of the manuscript

Manuscripts should be prepared in grammatically correct English.

The manuscript should follow the "OUAC manuscript template", information being presented in the following order:

- Title of paper;
- Name(s) of author(s);
- Institute and address of author(s);
- Abstract;
- Introduction;
- Experimental;
- Results and Discussion;
- Conclusions;
- Acknowledgments (optional);
- References.

Some exceptions from these rules will be accepted for the review articles.

Certificate of originality

The manuscript should be accompanied by a certificate of originality stating that:

- The work reported in the manuscript (title of the manuscript) submitted for publication in OUAC is original and has not been submitted for publication elsewhere.
- All authors contributed to the work submitted for publication.
- The manuscript was approved by all authors and they consent to have their name in the list of authors, thereby taking responsibility for the results contained in the manuscript.
- The authors have given proper citations to the previously reported works.
- In case data/tables/figures are quoted from some other publication, the required permission to do so has been obtained.

The „Certificate of originality” should be signed by all the authors.
